- God's chosen aren't teacher's pets, but role models in their behavior drawing others to follow covenant. In earnest with a binding and non-refundable responsibility they <sup>3</sup> bless all the families of the earth. Genesis 12: 3 ASV
- We continue our season studying the question What is man? Today we focus on mother.
- A mother's womb shaped the fetus that grew into an infant, ready for birth. A mother shapes the infant that grows into a boy, and later into a man, ready for eternity. Mothers have more to do with the morality of this nation than anyone else. Mothers outflank associates, girl friends, educators, employers, cousins, anybody and everybody.

- Mother, God made you that umpire behind home plate. What happens is up to you. When you accepted motherhood, it impends upon you to determine for your offspring what is right and wrong!
- Women need to get back to their given jobs,

- Text: Proverbs 31: 1, 10-31 ASV
- The oracle the mother of king Lemuel taught him. Lemuel translates; devoted to God.
- A worthy woman who can find? For her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband trusteth in her, And he shall have no lack of gain. She doeth him good and not evil All the days of her life. She seeketh wool and flax, And worketh willingly with her hands. She is like the merchant-ships; She bringeth her bread from afar. She riseth also while it is yet night, And giveth food to her household, And their task to her maidens. She considereth a field, and buyeth it; With the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard. She girdeth her loins with strength, And maketh strong her arms. She perceiveth that her merchandise is profitable: Her lamp goeth not out by night. She layeth her hands to the distaff, And her hands hold the spindle. She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; Yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her household; For all her household are clothed with scarlet. She maketh for herself carpets of tapestry; Her clothing is fine linen and purple. Her husband is known in the gates, When he sitteth among the elders of the land. She maketh linen garments and selleth them, And delivereth girdles unto the merchant. Strength and dignity are her clothing; And she laugheth at the time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; And the law of kindness is on her tongue. She looketh well to the ways of her household, And eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children rise up, and call her blessed; Her husband also , and he praiseth her, saying: Many daughters have done worthily, But thou excellest them all. Grace is deceitful, and beauty is vain; But a woman that feareth Jehovah, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; And let her works praise her in the gates.

- It was not mere accident Nero's mother was a murderess; or that Napoleon's mother was a woman of prodigious energy; or that Patrick Henry's mother was a distinguished talker; or that Lord Bacon's mother was remarkable for superior mental gifts; or that Wesley's mother had executive ability; or that Washington's mother was devout, pure, true, and of the loftiest character. Would there have been a revolution in 1776 if there had not been Massachusetts mothers and Rhode Island mothers and Virginia mothers, and North
